THE BREATH OF GOD PARTNER OPPORTUNITY

Earn 35% Recurring Commission

The Breath of God Partner opportunity includes something particularly valuable:

A recurring commission on every $12-per-week subscription you introduce.

As a Breath of God Partner, you receive:

35% of the $12 weekly subscription

That's:

$4.20 every week

for every active subscriber you refer.

And because the commission is recurring, you continue to receive that commission for as long as the person remains an active subscriber, subject to the terms of the Partner agreement.

What could that look like?

One active subscriber:

$4.20 per week

$18.20 per month, approximately

$218.40 per year

Ten active subscribers:

$42 per week

Approximately $2,184 per year

Twenty-five active subscribers:

$105 per week

Approximately $5,460 per year

Fifty active subscribers:

$210 per week

Approximately $10,920 per year

The important point is that these figures are not based upon making a new sale every week.

They are based upon building a growing base of active subscribers.

As you introduce more people to Breath of God, your recurring commission can potentially grow with them.

WHAT DOES THE $12-PER-WEEK SUBSCRIPTION INCLUDE?

The subscription is designed to provide considerable value to the person who joins.

Subscribers receive access to the Breath of God audio library and the collection of associated eBooks and audio experiences included within the subscription.

This gives you something substantial to recommend.

You aren't simply asking someone to purchase a single audio product.

You are introducing them to an ongoing library of material designed around peace of mind, personal development and the journey within.

WHY RECURRING COMMISSION MATTERS

There is an important difference between a one-time affiliate commission and recurring commission.

With a one-time commission, you make a referral and receive your commission once.

With the Breath of God Partner opportunity, your referral can continue to generate commission while that subscriber remains active.

That means your work today can potentially continue to produce income in the future.

For example, if you introduce someone who remains subscribed for twelve months, your 35% share would amount to approximately:

$218.40 in recurring commission from that one subscriber.

If you introduce another person next month, that person can begin their own recurring commission stream.

Over time, the objective is to build a growing group of people who have discovered Breath of God through you.

THIS IS WHY I CALL IT A PARTNERSHIP

I don't want Breath of God Partners to think of themselves simply as people who place a link somewhere and hope somebody clicks it.

I want partners to understand the opportunity.

You have the opportunity to introduce people to something you believe can be valuable to them.

If they choose to subscribe, you receive 35% recurring commission.

And if they remain subscribers, the relationship continues to benefit both sides.

It is a simple proposition:

You help introduce people to Breath of God.

They receive access to the Breath of God subscription.

You receive 35% recurring commission from the subscriptions you generate.

Everyone has the opportunity to benefit.

WHO COULD YOU INTRODUCE?

You may already have people around you who would be interested in Breath of God.

Perhaps you have:

- An email list
- A website
- A social media following
- A YouTube channel
- A podcast
- A community
- A coaching or consulting practice
- A personal network
- Friends and colleagues who value personal development
- Or simply a passion for sharing things you believe are worthwhile

You don't need millions of followers.

You need people who trust your recommendation.

And you don't need to pressure anyone.

The strongest recommendation is often simply:

"I have discovered something I think you might appreciate. Have a look and see what you think."

INTERESTED IN BECOMING A PARTNER?

If the idea of becoming a Breath of God Partner interests you, I would love to hear from you.

Rather than asking you to complete a complicated affiliate application, I would prefer that you contact me directly.

Visit:

and get in touch to tell me that you would like to apply to become a Breath of God Partner.

I will then explain the Partner arrangement, answer your questions and discuss how we can work together.

35% recurring commission.

$4.20 per week for every active $12 subscription you refer.

A simple opportunity to help share Breath of God with others.

If that sounds like something you would like to be part of, let's talk.
